Exciting news...

Science week, new members and awards

There is no such thing as a 'quiet week' in a school but this week has been full of excitement. We held our annual Science Week and the children have had fun carrying out a range of experiments as well as meeting experts who have a career in STEM. Volcanoes have exploded, nappies have been tested and forensic finger printing has been carried out! My thanks go to the Science team led by Miss Steward for organising and also to Mrs Faiza Ahmed, one of our parent volunteers, who has delivered Science sessions to KS2. Mrs Ali also held a successful Science Fair which parents attended.

We were delighted to find out that we have been awarded the STARS Local Authority Primary School of the Year. This award recognises what we do as a school to promote children walking in rather than travelling by car. This award is as much yours as parents as it is ours. Without your commitment to travelling in by foot wherever possible, we would not have received it. We are also able to encourage children to once again come in by scooter or bike (please bring a lock for your bikes and park them up outside the sports hall).

Finally, we welcome 3 new members to Maidenhall this week. Although they refuse to wear a uniform and their handwriting needs work, they are very cute and quiet... They are Fluffy, Flopsy and Jimmy- our new bunny rabbits! As they get used to us, we will be allowing the children to help to look after them.

Science Week

STEM careers fair at Maidenhall

Among the many exciting experiences that the children have had this week, was our first STEM careers fair. We had visitors from a range of scientific fields who shared their job roles with the children.

Each class had the opportunity to visit the fair and we would like to thank the following people for giving up their time for our children:

- Wayne Mills – Fire Fighter
- Ayesha Amin – Optician
- Maleha Rahman – Secondary Science Teacher
- Sarah Harmston – Scene of the Crime Officer
SOCO
- Runi – Zumba instructor
- Karen Murphy – Sports Therapist
- Andy Parrott – Cyber Security volunteer
- Zara Ismail – Pharmacist

PTA Cake Sale update
