

#FromMyWindow

Across Europe, children are being encouraged to put their arts and crafts in their windows so that when others go for a walk, they can look at the work of other children and know that everything will be ok. We are all in this together.

Your task

Draw or paint a picture of your own choice which you can display on a front window of where you live.

